Joshua Glucksman	U of I Evaluation	Note of evaluation to Mr. Bolos in the University of Illinois history department. Talking about his teaching techniques, from 1992.	I believe that he was a graduate school student teacher at U of I in 1992 and was a unique and engaging student teacher	1993 Teacher assistant directory from U of I with Spiro Bolos listed.	Education
Joshua Oh		It is a old looking piece of paper in Russian. The paper is his certificate in Leningrad University a.k.a. Saint Petersburg State University. The date on the certificate is September 8th, 1990.	I think that this is a certificate from when he lived in Russia, and attended Leningrad University at the time after UIV.	Leningrad University Library card	Education
Matthew Forman	"Outstanding Contributions to Education"	Acknowledging outstanding work with Buffalo Grove Highschool in the school year 1996-97	Was a great teacher in the school district, huge benefit to the school and staff members around him; 1996 was his first teaching job	Josh had a sheet with him being a student teacher in 1992. 1996 was his first teaching job and received this award	Education/Personal
Alec Mulvaney	Handwritten Paper About Family Life and History from high school to U of I	Starts off by talking about how his parents are divorced. Then talks about how he enjoyed history in high school but went into engineering department at U of I. Then talks about how he found his passion for history at U of I and if he could go back he would've gone into it from the start.	His parents are divorced, he's always kind of loved history but it really came out as a passion in college. He put passion over money as he said he could make a good amount of money as an engineer. He stuck with history and it's really what he lives to do.	He's a history teacher now. Teacher directory from U of I with his name listed, there's a U of I student ID with his name and picture, and a ribbon with U of I music award.	Education/Personal
Evie Lake	Memorial card for Gus Bolos	A member of his family named "Gus Bolos" died on March 18, 2002. This member was born on February 24, 1930. The memorial was at a Greek Orthodox Church. A farewell prayer at the bottom of the card expressed how someone is at peace now and the family needs to move on	"Gus Bolos is Mr. Bolos' father. They belong to a Greek Orthodox Church. Gus wrote the prayer at the bottom of the card	Avery found another artifact that shows that Gus is Mr. Bolos father and died on the same day because the card states "Gus Bolos, father of Spiro Bolos"	personal life
Mac Zelazny	Grade School Music Award	Had Illinois in award, had multiple different instruments on the medal, not very large, made of medal	Mr. Bolos was really into music because he was doing music competitions, can not tell what instrument he played based on the medal, and he went to grade school in Illinois.	Twitter bio says he's a musician and Mr. Hjelmgren confirms that he is really into music.	Hobbies
Courtney Cardillo	Russian Intonation	Half a page was russian intonations numbered from 1 - 7. Other half was in english describing the intonations. The bottom of the page had russian sources with date 1977.	He was learning and studying Russian	Emma in class knows some russian and recognizes some russian pronunciation.	Personal
Matthew Forman	U of Illinois Student Football Card	1985 Student ID Football Card, attended all football games on the card	1985 was his first year of college, he liked attending the football games because all of the games on his ID Card all are checked off	Multiple sources agree with the U of I card is his first year of college because the math adds up towards his jobs he has had	Personal
Emily Geier	6 patches from different countries & places	Patches that you could either sew or iron on, they have symbols on them that relate to the country/place that is written on the patch	Possibly got a different patch at different places that he's been to	Lily agrees that it could be from different places that he's been to. She thinks that he's traveled a lot	Personal
William Ryan	Christmas photo with family	3 young children gathered together in front of Christmas stockings. There are Christmas decorations in the background. The three children are sitting on a piano.	The children either belong to Mr. Bolos or he is very close with them. Most likely a Christmas card photo.	Multiple sources have agreed with me that these kids are Mr. Bolos children.	Personal
Rebecca Brodne	Middle school science fair ribbon	The purple ribbon is from Albright Middle School. It is a first place ribbon from the science fair. On the back it says first place was awarded to Spiro Bolos when he was in 7th grade from the school science fair.	Mr. Bolos went to Albright Middle School (in Villa Park IL). He was smart/nerdy or really liked science growing up.	Grade school Music pin corroborates the location (Villa Park IL), haven't found anything about liking science/being smart or nerdy	Personal
Sydney Gaines-Wheeler	Blue birthday card	The card is a light blue and has a giant gold "50" and then on the inside it says "Here's to fifty! That's five decades of laughing, learning loving and living... five decades of becoming the wonderful person everyone is proud to celebrate today. Happy Birthday" The card is signed with "Love, Ken + Laura"	Mr. Bolos is 50 or older and Laura and Ken may be coworkers of his or friends that he is close to because they closed the letter with "Love," Ken and Laura may also be family member of his since the letter is somewhat personal sounding	I asked what my classmates thought and they agreed with my statements. I also talked another social studies teachers, Mr. Atwell, and he said his birthday was July 18.	Personal
Francesca Caruso	Stack of notes from appointment with Dr. Stein	A stack of notes from an appointment with a doctor talking about symptoms of a condition called adenocarcinoma. Some type of cancer since there was a tumor found on his liver, talked about CT scans and chemotherapy. Adenocarcinoma is found in these types of cancers: lung, prostate, pancreatic, esophageal, colorectal.	Mr. Bolos or someone close to him possibly wife or mother has/had cancer. Possibly someone older (like his mother) as the notes say that eighty year olds can be treated and it can lead to an extended life.	In 2015 (year before the notes from appointment were dated) there was a packet from Northwestern asking for someone to participate in fluid/blood testing for cancer.	Personal
Charlie Ware	Artist Invitation	Invitation to an artist meet and greet thing. All proceeds go to charity. Further online research concluded he was the artist. It says he is a photographer	He is a well respected photographer because if he was invited to do a meet and greet he must be respected or recognized to some degree.	Another artifact from the box is a flyer of some sort to the same event. This one is inviting people or informing them of the event featuring people on a train.	Hobbies
Lily Ryan	Photo with Mr. Bolos and 3 other men	Mr Bolos with 3 men smiling, two with green and blue on their sweatshirts, in the background there are binders, folders, desks	He was a teacher at NTHS because there are school supplies in the background and a desk, the green and blue sweatshirts are probably New Trier sweatshirts, smiling together means he liked his job and coworkers	Mr. Behm in the social students office said the other people in the picture are Mr. Drypush, Mr. Yang, and Mr. Jackson, who all work at NTHS	Occupation
Matt McKenna	A photo of 5 people with instruments	there is an image of Mr Bolos and 4 others three of the people are holding guitars and there is a drummer and a singer	Mr. Bolos and four other band members are on a porch and they are probably rehearsing there music	there is another artifact that shows the band name shaeasha this booklet explains the origin of their band and how they developed over the years
Nate Schinderle	List of assistant teachers	There is a list with many names, numbers,	Spiro must've been a teachers assistant at university of Illinois at the time and living on campus	An evaluation confirms that he was an assistant teacher at university of Illinois in the 90's	Education
Avery Faulkner	Photography About Me Flyer	Advertising his own photography with an about me paragraph for the customer to get to know and contact information	He is a freelance photographer who takes pictures of average people in public and also included in his about me paragraph that he is a social studies teacher and historian	Mr. Atwell told us that he like to take pictures of strangers in public and that he has had a show to display his photography	Hobbies
