7:30 AM	Unbelt Fighter Practice	Once upon a time, unbelted would gather on the morning after coronations and investitures. This gave a chance to get together, share our common experiences, and meet with others on the path from outside our usual practice area. Yes, it is early: this gives everyone time to still pack up and we will be done by 10am, plus it will still be nice and cool. As we are a bit isolated up here, this also gives a chance for the local fighters to meet others and is accessible to those that may not make it to fight on Saturday.	List Field	Wilhelm
