StrictDave	Spanking Punishment Court	05/18/2018	9:00 PM	11:00 PM	Savannah 2/3	Have a grievance to be settled? Curious about it and want to know more? Just want to come and watch? Frolicon Corporal Punishment Court is a light-hearted, just-for-fun way to seek justice against your friends. If someone has wronged you in some (not overly serious) way, then this is your chance to see that they get their comeuppance. This event is a LOT of fun, both for spectators and for participants. It is all about having fun, lots of laughs, and some well-deserved corporal punishment administered on the spot to willing, guilty parties. A quick rundown of the rules Anyone may charge anyone: tops, bottoms, men, women -- doesn't matter. Plaintiffs and defendants will come up one at a time to plead their cases I will render an absolutely impartial judgement to the very best of my ability (no, really!) Bottoms or switches who are found guilty (and who are willing to receive CP) will generally have penalty swats administered on the spot; they may also be sentenced to give a nominal amount of personal service time to the plaintiff. Tops who are found guilty will be sentenced to give personal service time only, of course--no swats. The big twist -- If you charge someone with something and lose your case, the penalties will rebound on YOU This is a no-pressure event! I only want to have people on the stand who are willing to be there, and I'll only have on the spanking bench those who are willing to be there. Also, the corporal punishment is more for fun than anything, so don't be (too) nervous about it. For more details or to file a CP Court charge, click here on any device: http://bit.ly/froliconcourt Regardless of whether or not you are part of a case, please come and watch the fun!
