

Thompson-Nicola Nature Viewing Region

Thompson River Canyon & Area

Spences Bridge

Thompson River at Spences Bridge: photo by Thompson Nicola Film Commission

Spences Bridge: photo by Maze Fyre

Herds of Bighorn Sheep; salmon viewing.

Lillooet Naturalist Society

Geographical Description	Along the Trans Canada Highway at and near Spences Bridge.
Area/ Trail Length
Habitat	Bunchgrass.
Viewing Highlights	Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep – year round; best time for sheep is November to April Chukar – year round Migration of sockeye salmon August and September
Other Features	Vistas of the Thompson River Canyon.
Main Access	Along the Trans Canada Highway just southwest of Spence's Bridge.
Secondary Accesses
Cautions	Proper pullout areas are needed along the highway so viewers must take due caution.
Jurisdiction	Private land.

RegulationsFacilities

None. Campgrounds at Goldpan and Skihist Provincial Parks, 9.3 and 28 km south; basic services at Lytton 35 km, all services at Cache Creek 49 km north.

OtherRecreational Activities

Fishing; Spences Bridge is known for steelhead fishing in the fall.

OtherConnections*History*Links

Lillooet Naturalist Society

Wildlife Viewing in the Thompson Region

© 2019 BC Nature