

Thompson-Nicola Nature Viewing Region

Lillooet Area

Highway 99 Lillooet to Seton Lake

Stops along Cayoosh Creek between the old bridge and the BC Hydro Seton Dam Campground and Recreation Site; two short forest and creek trails at recreation site.

Geographical Description	Fraser River canyon and benchlands
Area/ Trail Length	1.4 km loop.
Habitat	Riparian.
Viewing Highlights	May – August – riverine birds including Harlequin Duck, Common Mergansers, American Dippers, Belted Kingfisher, Lazuli Bunting and Bullock's Oriole
	June to August – bats at dusk
	Late August – September – Coho and Pink salmon spawning

Other Features

Main Access South of Lillooet on Highway 99, 1-4 km past bridge over Seton River.

Secondary Accesses

Cautions

Jurisdiction

Regulations

Facilities Picnic tables, drinking water and outhouses at the picnic area a further 2 km southwest on the Seton River. All services in Lillooet.

Other Recreational Activities

Other Connections A further 2 km southwest on Highway 99 is the Naxwit (garter snake) picnic area located by the Seton River, with interpretive signage about wildlife and plants.

History

FMI "Canyon to Alpine, Lillooet Hiking Guide" published by the Lillooet Naturalist Society.

Links

Lillooet Naturalist Society

Lillooet Hiking Guide: Canyon to Alpine

Seaton Lake Recreation Area

