

Unit/Work Unit	Anticipated Hours/Week	Anticipated Dates	Summary	Preferred Qualifications
Office of Charter Schools	25-30	1	The Office of Charter Schools team will work on projects directly impacting the 2024 NC charter schools. The team will provide work with 2024 school year projects and will ensure critical areas of the charter landscape such as policy, authorizing, best practices, and innovation. Additionally, the team will be responsible for ensuring compliance with the school law as necessary.	-Open to any post-secondary degree level -Preferred background: experience or degree in Public Administration, Public Policy, Education, Data Analytics -Strongly prefers work experience in Charter Schools
Office of Digital Teaching and Learning	30-35	2	Interns within the Office of Digital Teaching and Learning (OTL) will analyze qualitative programming data and provide support for program development, such as the NC2025 Educator Conference. Responsibilities will include data analysis, working on program development, writing reports, and collaborating with various schools, as well as education across the state. Interns can also expect some project management responsibilities, including staff or establishing goals and setting up projects for the upcoming year.	-Open to any post-secondary degree level -Preferred background: experience, degree in Education or Data Analytics -Ability to work hybrid and if person occasionally remote options also available
Office of the Government Affairs	30-35	1	The Office of Government Affairs team will assist the Government Affairs team during the 2024 legislative session. This team will be expected to conduct research for issues and policies pertaining to the State Superintendent, State Board of Education, the General Assembly, and public education.	-Current undergraduate or masters students -Preferred background: experience, degree in Public Policy, Education, or Corporate Social Responsibility, Technology -In-person attendance required; occasional hybrid work may be possible
NC Healthy Schools (Office of Academic Standards)	20-25	1	The team will focus on improving student health and wellness. Interns will continue to enhance digital communication, organizational, data analysis, and policy review of health focused programs. The team will be expected to analyze as well as other data on student health and engage various stakeholders. Team will require knowledge on the Whole School, Whole Community, and the Whole Child framework using this knowledge to build communication products.	-Current masters or advanced degree students -Preferred background: experience, degree in Education, Data Analytics, Public Policy, Public Health, Social Work, Counseling or Psychology -Ability to work hybrid and in-person occasionally
Center for Safe Schools	35+	1	The primary goal for the CFS team would be to support the center in a project relating to best practices for school discipline. Interns would be expected to gather data and write reports that explain effective discipline practices across the state.	-Current masters or advanced degree students -Preferred background: experience, degree in Public Policy, Education, or Social Justice -In-person attendance preferred, however hybrid or also acceptable
Office of Learning Mobility and Accreditation	20-30	1	The CLM team will have hands-on experience planning and organizing a large-scale convening and professional development for district and charter school leaders across the state. The team will engage with program leaders within districts and schools to highlight promising practices funded through CLM. The team will gain experience engaging with a variety of stakeholders, organizing and leading convenings, providing support for district and charter school leaders' professional development, and writing grants about promising practices across the state.	-Current undergraduate or masters students -Preferred background: experience, pursuing degrees in Education or Communication -Communication
Office of Research and Evaluation	20-25	2	Interns in the Office of Research and Evaluation will support the design and implementation of research projects with the Department of Public Instruction as well as public school units. Interns will interact and collect and analyze research reports. The office partners with PIRSA and other stakeholders to drive research and data to inform policy decisions. Interns will be expected to work in support of various projects and activities across the state. They can expect 1-2 guidelines from HCDPS staff while analyzing research reports and trends on issues, identifying and analyzing data trends and identifying "wins." This opportunity is 2 weeks in duration, between mid-June and early August. Dates flexible, in consultation with the hiring supervisor.	-Current masters or advanced degree students -Preferred background: experience, pursuing degrees in Public Policy, Education, Data Analytics -Excellent Data Analyst -Excellent communication skills -Ability to work hybrid and in-person occasionally
NC Virtual Public School	20-25	1	The agency operations team will support the work of the business operations team, including 1-on-1 work with the Director of Operations to achieve strategic improvements to business processes across the agency. This opportunity will allow the intern to learn about the inner workings of a state agency.	-Open to any post-secondary degree level -Preferred background: experience, degree in Public Administration, Business Administration, Finance, Project Management -Communication or other fields
Office of Operations	20-25	1	The AGS team will have support the various programs in a variety of ways. Some projects may include: policy research and development, development of program activities, on-site support at the NC Governor's School, and research support. The team will work 1:1 with the Director as well as other program leaders.	-Open to any post-secondary degree level -Preferred background: graduate students -Preferred background: experience or interest in public administration, corporate research, or grant education -In-person attendance required; hybrid work may be possible

