

Place	Price range	What's your favorite thing about this place?	Address	Website
Pine's Hot Chicken Shack South	$	The hot chicken	524 Nashville Pike Nashville, TN 37211	http://www.pineshotchicken.com
Yggle Di		The hot and not so hot chicken
Robert's Western World		The only Lower Broadway honky tonk where locals actually go.		four locations in town including Broadway http://www.rwworld.com
Nashville Public Library		Chief Rights Room and Ideas For Women are inspiring and informative spaces, and there's often great art and exhibits in the main lobby.	615 Church Street
Hatch Show Print		Most important letterpress / poster shop in America with excellent gift shop — believe the hype!
Tennessee Brew Works		Excellent farm-to-bip brewery not far from conference site, with killer "Two Beer Burger"	on Ewing in The Town area
Skull's Ramble Room		a new classy downtown bar, has jazz and gets a little racy w/ burlesque shows, a good reason to wander into gritty Printer's Alley
Fluel Street Pub		dark English pub that shows soccer games in Printer's Alley
Pink Mechanical		great place for food, ping pong and myriad other games
The Basement		tiny, beloved, intimate music venue for indie/folk/roots acts	1604 8th Ave S Ste 330
Noelle (hotel, bar, coffee)		gorgeous restaurant, love history w/ hip coffee shop, and rooftop bar, very close to conference
Assembly Food Hall		many of Nashville's best food restaurants have a space here, all in one sophisticated food court right next to the conference space
Skye Lounge		Formerly www.skyelounge.com how a bar w/ 1950s-style views	623 Union Street
Oak Bar at Hermitage Hotel		right next to bar tucked into lower level of historic hotel, also has the most photographed music bar/bathroom in Nashville	231 6th Ave N
Frosty Monkey downtown		collaborative in a cool old apartment-style building	219 Rip John Lewis Way
Pinewood Social		great restaurant with the fanciest bowling lanes you'll ever see
City House		best restaurant in Nashville, reasonably priced
Dot & Daughters		maybe the best restaurant in Nashville
Basdon		also maybe the best restaurant in Nashville — pricey, but also has a more boozing bar with covered patio
Monday Night Preservation Co.		an Alberta brewery, but they've opened inside an incredibly well renovated early 1900s slaughterhouse right on the river in the Germantown neighborhood
Basdon Six January		arguably the best craft beer in Nashville, very near Monday Night
Fisk University's Carl Van Vechten Gallery		exquisite but overlooked gallery at the HBCU
Duke's		city-wide the "live" bar in East Nashville serving great music, always
Mickey's		on this sorta live bar in East Nashville with stellar jukebox and actually friendly interactions among all corners
21c Museum Hotel		public accessible contemporary art gallery that's worth wandering into
Lipstick Lounge		1 of 2 remaining lesbian bars in the country, and a good karaoke spot with cheap drinks
Fried Art Museum		One of 3 premier art museum which is cheap to visit and will be holding a sale, all-contemporary art exhibits rotation during the conference
Parthenon		Yes, you've seen the outside online, but it's worth a visit for the inner museum even more so. Check out the art galleries and history exhibits, plus of course, the giant Athena.
Parnassus		Independent bookstore owned by acclaimed author Ann Patchett
Third Man Records		Jack White's record companions. The Blue Room is moody wine bar connected to it also holds live music and great view
Greenhouse Bar		Away from the downtown bustle, and literally in a greenhouse. Very calm, and has great food (especially)
Plaza Mariachi		A converted retail store turned plaza of multiple shops (grocery, clothing, restaurants, bars, etc) in one space. It's a cultural center for Latinos here in many ways, and they host different live events nightly — Latin, salsa, cumbia, reggaeton, etc.
The Belcourt Theater		Very cool, historic theater playing movies no one else is, and for very cheap
Lane Motor Museum		Truly weird and distinct oddball car museum — and not just for car people		