

A note from the one who updated the sheet after the initial abandonment: if you're here, I'd honestly recommend going somewhere else to find players to add.

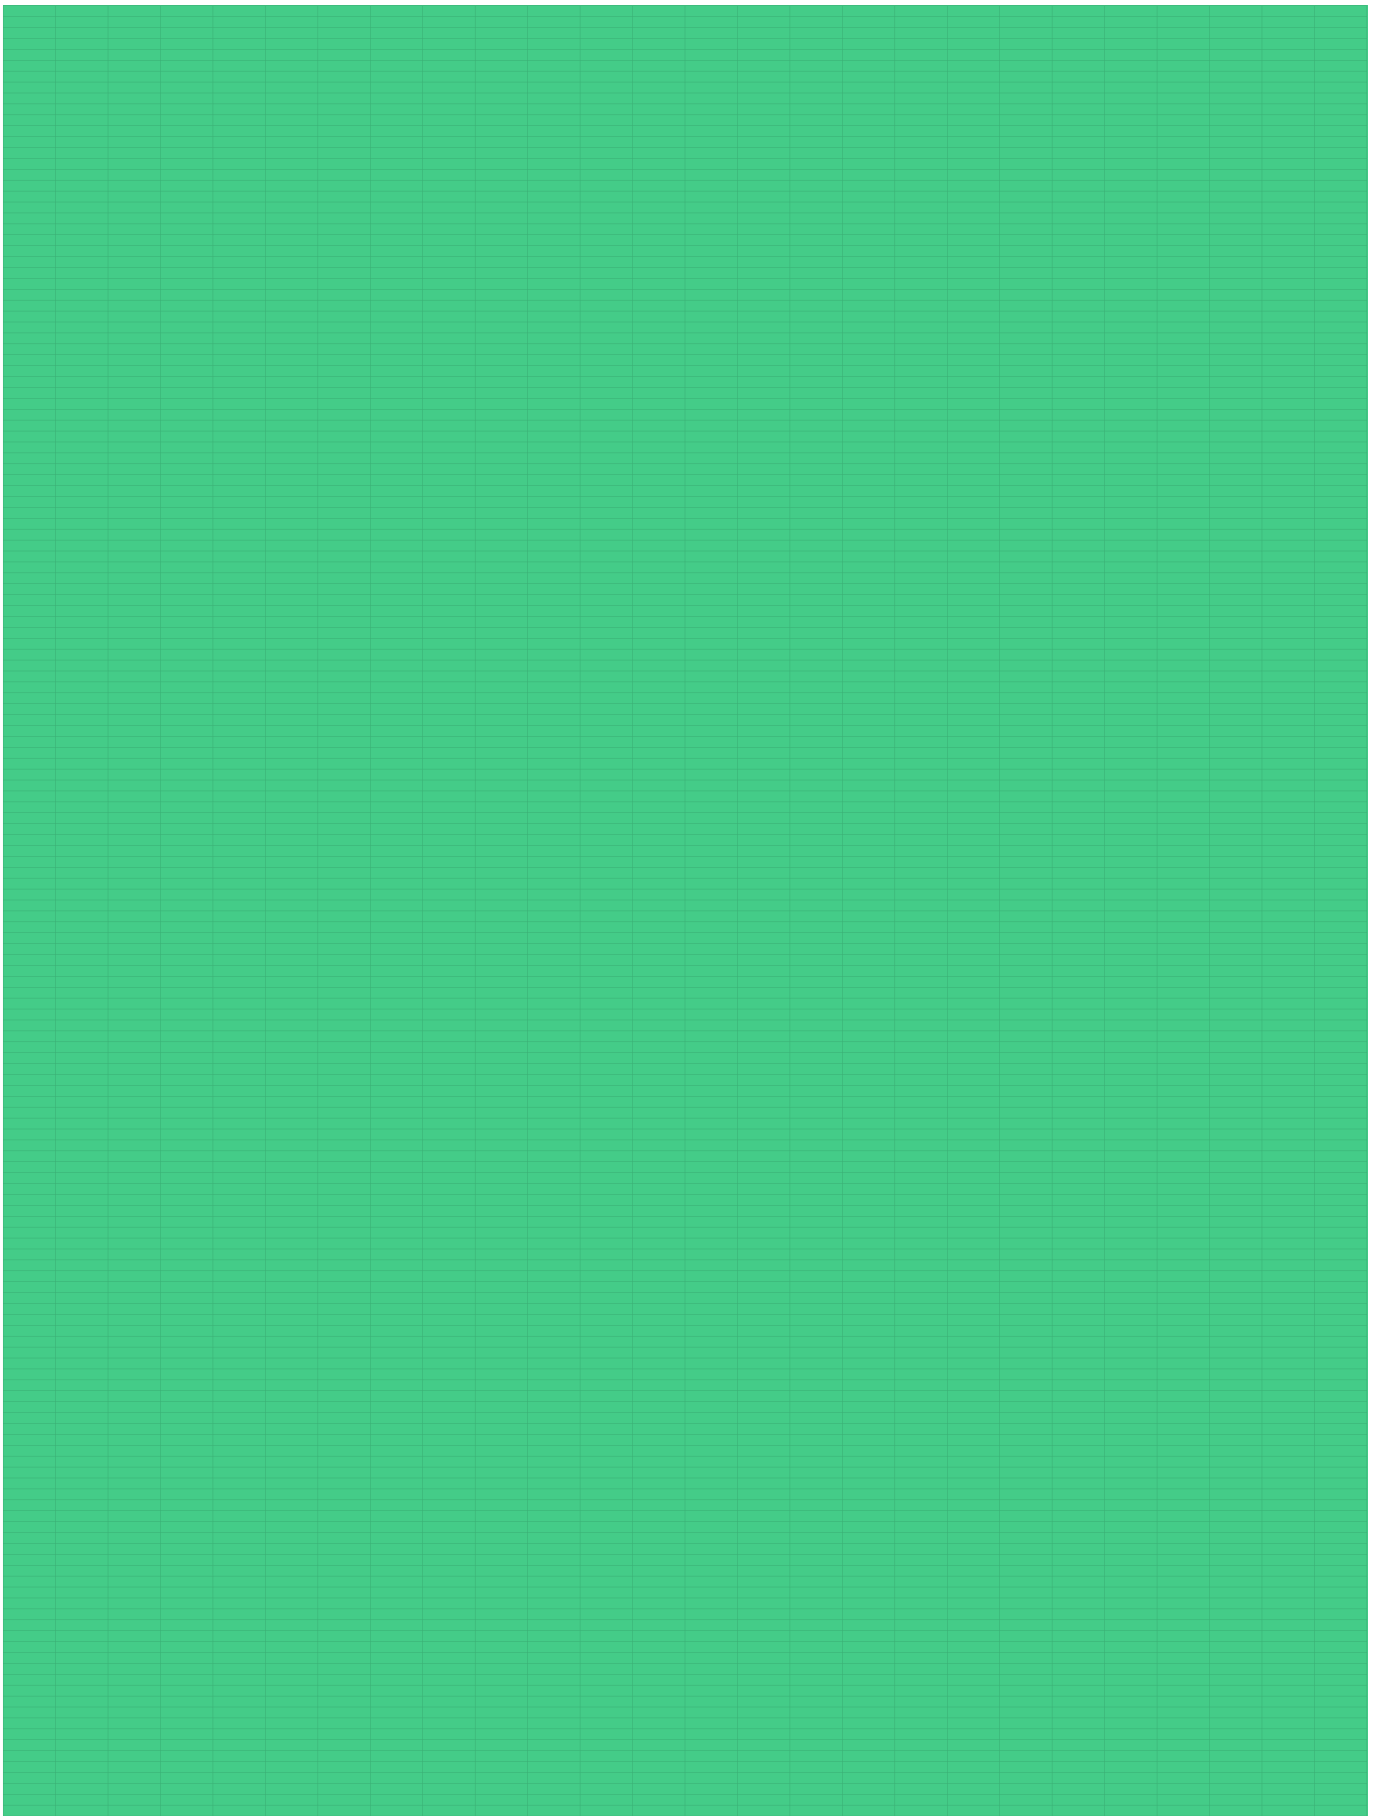

I haven't updated this since February, and I have no interest in maintaining this sheet after its original abandonment by the creator anymore. It's messy here too, not gonna lie. If you can think of a place to find other players, it's likely to be a lot cleaner, perhaps simpler too.
