/r/TrekRP is a nearly three-year-old roleplaying community inspired by the Star Trek universe during the period just after Deep Space Nine's "Dominion War" arc. We offer a mix of fast-paced events and casual story telling, encourage character-inspired individual stories, as well as small-group RP. Character creation is fairly simple but can be as deep and complex as you wish. We have a team of six dedicated mods (who are also walking trekkiepedias) as well as a Discord Server filled with relevant and not-so-relevant conversation for character development and a myriad of OOC channels. We're a tight-knit community known for being particularly wholesome and welcoming - Infinite Diversity in Infinite Combinations being one of our inspirations mantras. Some of the amenities

If you've been dreaming of a Space-based roleplaying experience where fun, mystery, and intrigue collide with the occasional shoot-em-up mixed with unintelligible technobabble, join us on the USS *Athene* where no one (except about forty of us) have gone before!
