Yu (Hero/Souj/etc) -> Yukiko -> Everybody else
 Yu is a Persona man. He's in a game with very, very broken buffs/debuffs, and the game is smart enough not to hand them out to most non-Teddie characters, so if he does nothing but drop buffs & debuffs, he's winning you the fight.
 Yukiko is the best healer, ego she is the best support member to pick. Golden gives her an early Divine Grace and Mudo, so she's the best healer by a lot then. If you want a really great damage cannon for endgame, bike rides with her also 'pay off' the most of it.
 Teddie is interesting. He starts awful. Then he gets busted P4 buffs & debuffs. Eventually they matter less once Yu gets Debbilate, but he's also gotten Medarama for being a backup healer. He'd certainly almost as good as Yukiko by endgame, but we'll throw her
 Everybody else is not packing busted buffs / debuffs.

(Disclaimer: The girls will frequently drop 4 agility to equip Mori Shirts for Auto-Sukukaja over Rune Dresses)
