

If you are looking for the list of opportunities to volunteer from home, you are in the right place. However, you are seeing this message, because the top moderator on r/VoteBlue has de-modded and/or revoked mod permission from a majority of the YB mods, including the ones responsible for all volunteer posts. If you would like to find us, and our new list of opportunities, come to our new home, r/VoteDEM. Learn more by clicking this text.
