2019 Club Rankings and Totals

as of Wednesday, January 16, 2019

The Thermal Belt BassMasters have fished 1 tournaments thus far this year. The club, as a whole, has caught fish for a total weight of pounds. That means that there has been an average of 0 fish weighed in at each tournament. The average weight of the fish weighed in is pounds. In the interest of conservation, we believe that it is crucial to monitor fish mortality during our tournaments. For each dead fish weighed at a tournament, a penalty is assessed. This is in effort to encourage careful and humane treatment of the fish so that future generations may enjoy the sport. We have weighed in no dead fish in our 1 tournaments thus far this year.

So far this year the Thermal Belt BassMasters has taken in from club point-related tournaments a total of $. There has been a total of $0 of prize money given out. First place has received $ and $ for second place. The total Big Fish payout for this year thus far is $. The Club has received $ from these tournaments.

The Big Fish for the year was caught by . It was caught at on Saturday, December 30, 1899. It weighed pounds.

Rank	Name Alan Cooke	Grand Total Calculated	Total Points Accumulated	Top 10 Lake Points Calculated	Meetings Attended	Meeting Points	Number of Tournaments	Appearance Points	Number of Fish Weighed	Average Number of Fish Per Tournament	Number of Dead Fish	Total Weight of Fish	Average Weight of Fish	% of Club Total Weight	Big Fish
1	Jim Crowder	10			1	10
1	Brannon Curtis	10			1	10
1	Stephen Ellis	10			1	10
1	Stan Hardin	10			1	10
1	Terry Horn	10			1	10
1	Michael Mace	10			1	10
1	Chris Martin	10			1	10
1	Angela Mayo	10			1	10
1	John K Mayo	10			1	10
1	John W Mayo	10			1	10
1	Ben Olah	10			1	10
1	Curtis Robbins	10			1	10
1	Billy Scoggins	10			1	10
1	Gary Thompson	10			1	10									