Unknown	No	No	June-18	4	Google	Have been with Bush Wealth almost from the beginning and they have never put me into a product that has lost me money. May not have made a "killing" but never had to break out the crying towel either. Their fees may be a bit high but hey, you get what you pay for. Always there when I have a question. Last but not least, there is a great bowl of candy on the front desk. Drop in, say hi and snitch a piece.

We lost more than $7,000 in just over a year, and it was not all because of market fluctuation. It was a horrible experience where only the wealthy are looked after and their money and time valued. If you have only a small nest egg and want it to grow, do not seek Bush Wealth Mgmt. We went elsewhere and found a true Christian in Cairo who really cares about us and our future and helps
