GENERAL RULES

1. Anyone (not currently holding a Badge of Shame) is allowed to play. All players must be in the PoGoRaids Discord server to participate. Join here: https://discord.gg/TAWEwPj
2. Remember the golden rule: don't be an ass. By signing up, you agree that you will respect all participants.
3. Only one team is permitted per person. Anyone caught using a second account to do their raids will be banned from PokeDraft moving forward.
4. The goal is to form a team to successfully solo a variety of Tier 3 raid bosses as quickly as possible.
5. The players will be divided into "divisions" of 4 players. You will compete against the other divisions.
6. Each division will remain private and closed to the others, where they will hold a collective draft (via Discord) to select their teams. You may only use the Pokemon on your team for the entirety of the challenge. See TEAM FORMATION RULES.

SIGN-UP PROCEDURE AND ROUND CODE

1. To avoid placing no-shows in draft divisions and to help ensure the integrity of the draft, there will be a two-step sign-up procedure. The form attached to this document serves as the first step.
2. When the sign-up period ends, the second step will begin. A code will be dispersed to all participants via Discord. Participants will have 24 hours to create an empty battle party in game with this code as its name and post a screenshot in a designated channel.
3. Every player who does this in time will be guaranteed a division in the draft round. If you can follow this simple step, we are confident that you will participate in the draft round and not waste the time and effort of the Draft Leader team.
4. Anyone who does this after the deadline will be placed on a waiting list, and will be placed in a division only if a spot becomes available. We make no guarantees about placement in any division for those who post the screenshot after the deadline.

TEAM FORMATION RULES

1. The four players will work together and form four teams of six Pokemon for league play.
2. Each Pokemon species may only be used on one player's team in each division.
3. All Pokemon available at the beginning of the drafting period (when divisions are announced) are eligible for draft, with the inclusion of Azelf, Mesprit, and Uxie.
3a. Alolan forms and Deoxys/Giratina Formes will count as separate eligible species, meaning you can draft its normal or Alolan form (Normal, Attack, Defense, or Speed Forme Deoxys and Altered or Origin Forme Giratina) and can only use the one you chose. You must pick the form you want when you draft, and you may draft multiple forms (if available) at one form per turn.
3b. Mewtwo is considered three pokemon: Classic Mewtwo (with Psychic, Focus Blast, Shadow Ball, and Hyper Beam), Elemental Mewtwo (with Ice Beam, Flamethrower, and Thunderbolt), and Armored Mewtwo (any movesets available to Armored Mewtwo).
4. Once teams are formed, they will be locked in until the end of the sealed draft.

RAID RULES

1. Every boss rotation, three Tier 3 raid bosses will be randomly selected. Your task is to solo these Pokemon with your team. We will determine how long each raid rotation will be.
1a. A total of 6 videos will be required from each division, i.e. two videos per raid boss.
1b. Each player must submit at least one video and at most two videos.
1c. If a player drops, each player must submit two videos.
2. Scoring will be based upon the amount of time remaining on the clock when the flee raid/switch Pokemon buttons disappear. See SCORING RULES.
3. Your team of six against the selected raid boss must be the six unique Pokemon that you drafted. No repeats or undrafted mons are allowed.
4. You may NOT revive and re-enter. The team of six you choose is all you get.
5. Weather boosts are permitted. You are encouraged to use whichever weather boost you can to get the best time.
6. TMs and legacy moves are permitted. You may use different individuals of the same species against different bosses (ie. to save TMs), but only one per boss.
7. The raid must be done with your account, the same account for each raid. Alternate accounts are not permitted.
8. Video evidence is required, beginning with the lobby screen and ending after the boss has been defeated, preferably ending with the green "You Win!" screen. Screen shots are not sufficient. If there is any question as to whether you defeated the boss or timed out, your score will not be counted.
9. The empty team/early start trick is permitted (encouraged) as long as the raid does not start with more than 180 seconds on the clock. If the timer does start before 180 seconds, we will add an additional second to your end time for every second above 180 displayed on the raid timer.
10. All submitted videos must have been recorded during the designated round, and not previously. The empty party named by the code given at the beginning of the round should remain as one of your parties for the entire round.
11. If there is any doubt about when a certain raid took place, the existence of this party will serve as evidence that the raid took place within the designated round. Without this evidence, any submission under question may be voided.

SCORING RULES

1. Your videos must be submitted by announced deadlines (usually, the evening [Eastern Time]). If you haven't submitted a video by then, you will incur a penalty.
2. If your submission is late, your score for that boss will be reduced, depending on the time of delay:
2a. If your submission is up to an hour late, your score for that boss will be reduced by 1 point.
2b. If your submission is more than an hour but fewer than three hours late, your score for that boss will be reduced by 3 points.
2c. If your submission is more than three hours but fewer than six hours late, your score for that boss will be reduced by 5 points.
2d. No submissions will be accepted more than six hours after a deadline has passed.
3. Your submission will be judged based on the time at which the flee raid/switch Pokemon buttons disappear. You may resubmit better times before the rounds end.
4. Every player to defeat the boss will receive a score based off an ordinal point system.
5a. All videos submitted to each raid boss are grouped together.
5b. The fastest raid boss time (across all divisions) will recieve points equal to "the number of divisions multiplied by two."
5c. The next fastest time will receive points equal to "(the number of divisions multiplied by two) - 1" etc.....
6. At the end of each boss rotation, each pod will add up all the points they earned. This is a team event, all times matter for each division.
7a. When the sealed draft season is done, each pod will add the points they earned through out the season. This value will be compared to the other divisions.
7b. The division with the most points wins. We will crown four players because it is a team event.

MEWTWO RULES

1. With the addition of three new charged moves to Mewtwo's move pool, we have decided in the interest of fairness not to allow Mewtwo to be drafted in the same manner as other Pokemon.
2. Instead, two different "Mewtwo forms" will be available to draft. They're considered for the purpose of the draft to be two different Pokemon. You can draft both on two different turns (if available), and if you do take both, you can use them in the same raid party.
3. Classic Mewtwo: can only use Psychic, Shadow Ball, Focus Blast, and Hyper Beam (any fast moves).
4. Elemental Mewtwo (aka Newtwo): can only use Ice Beam, Flamethrower, and Thunderbolt (any fast moves).
5. Armored Mewtwo is considered a separate draftable species entirely and has no restrictions on its movesets.
6. Psystrike may not be used.

BADGE OF SHAME

Since this is the first iteration of the mechanic, we will be trying to reach no shows for feedback instead of banning them for the next season.

FINAL REMARKS

The PoGoRaids Team Draft is very much at the mercy of Niantic's decisions for when/if to change up the boss pools. We will continue to do the best we can to ensure that all participants have a reasonable amount of time for each boss.
yourcalcprof and the PoGoRaids admin team have the final say over all rule disputes. This includes unexpected changes to PoGO combat mechanics. Remember this is for fun -- try your best, but don't take yourself too seriously!
