

Welcome to the Canon Romione Fic Database!

Categories:

Vingettes/Collections: Fics that cover a variety of time frames. These are usually slice-of-life type stories. Feel free to link the entire collection AND/OR to link each fic individually in the appropriate category below.

Pre-Hogwarts: Fics before Hogwarts

PS/SS: Fics centered in Philosopher's Stone/Sorcerer's Stone.

CoS: Fics centered in Chamber of Secrets.

PoA: Fics centered in Prisoner of Azkaban.

GoF: Fics centered in Goblet of Fire.

OotP: Fics centered in Order of the Phoenix.

HBP: Fics centered in Half Blood Prince.

DH: Fics centered in Deathly Hallows.

Post-Battle: Fics up to 5 years after the battle in DH (1998-2003). Remember that this is the canon spreadsheet.

Domestic Bliss: Could happen anytime, but is associated with Romione cohabitating and/or having kids. Things do not always have to be "bliss" to be considered domestic bliss; this is simply a trope.

Pre-Epilogue: After the birth of Rose (~2005) but before 19 Years Later (~2017). May also include the Domestic Bliss trope (above).

Epilogue Era: Around 2017, more or less follows events in the Epilogue. **Following Cursed Child is optional!****

Beyond Epilogue/Next Gen: After the kids are at Hogwarts. Again, following CC is optional as long as the fic follows the events in the Epilogue.

Romione Librarian Rules for Submission:

Thank you SO much for your service and dedication to a Romione database! I don't think I can thank you enough for helping our ship. To make sure this database is as accessible as possible, please review the rules below :)

1. Please don't delete anything or change the formatting! Yes, I have a backup... but still :D If you make a mistake/accidentally delete something and you feel you can't fix it, just let me know :)
2. Please follow the provided formatting and link a fic when you list the title. HOWEVER... do not link a fic at all if it involves minors in sexual situations and/or scenarios with sexual assault. You are still welcome to list a fic with those scenarios, but please do not link it, per Reddit's rules. **In the "Link?" column, indicate either NL (No Link) or Provided (meaning the link is in the title).****
3. All fics in this spreadsheet must feature Romione in a relationship, following what we know of canon. Since we have no canon proof of polyamory, all polyamorous fics belong in the AU spreadsheet.
4. Because most of the listed authors in this database lurk in the server/subreddit/could have access to this list, it's best to assume that any of them could see your notes at any point. Please keep summaries/notes/triggers as objective as possible and try not to editorialize.
5. Remember to fill out the entire line for a fic, including title/author/rating/source location/link (if applicable)/trigger warnings, summary
6. Feel free to post stories in multiple tabs, but please check first that it A) fits the description and B) hasn't already been posted there.
7. If you notice a fic is missing some details (indicated by the red highlight) and you happen to know them, please do me a favor and fill those in. If you don't know the missing info for a fic you're listing, please highlight the row in red so that it's obvious that we're missing a piece.
8. Please add your name in the "added by" column so we know who to thank :D
