Leadership & Member Development
Accredited with Excellence	Accredited	Unaccredited	Unacceptable
Chapter has an effective and structured membership development plan (including New Member programming, continuing membership education and brotherhood/sisterhood activities)	Chapter has a formalized membership development plan (including New Member programming, continuing membership education and brotherhood/sisterhood activities)	Chapter has a dated/unused membership development plan (i.e. only New Member programming, limited continuing membership education and weak brotherhood/sisterhood activities)	No formal new member plan and/or chapter deviates from plan
Chapter consistently incorporates the organization's mission and values through programming and demonstrated impact with individual members and within the campus and Bethlehem communities. Members are able to articulate the organization's mission and values.	Chapter sometimes incorporates the organization's mission and values through programming	Chapter inconsistently programs through incorporation of organizational mission and values	Chapter does not incorporate mission and values through programming
Chapter continuously communicates the mission, vision and values of the organization and uses positive incentives to promote values alignment within membership	Chapter members are aware of the mission, vision and values of the organization	Chapter members are not aware of the mission, vision and values of the organization	Chapter member's actions/behaviors do not align with mission, vision, values of the organization
Chapter membership consistently attends IHQ programming and implements the learnings, best practices, and recommendations directly within chapter operations and programming	Chapter membership consistently attends IHQ programming	Chapter membership rarely participates in IHQ programming	Chapter membership does not attend any IHQ programming
More than 75% of chapter members are involved in other campus organizations and/or leadership roles (i.e. Orientation Leader, Gryphon, Student Senate, GEM, Greek Allies, Peer Health Advisors, BTS, EcoReps,etc.)	At least 50% of chapter members are involved in other campus organizations and/or leadership roles (i.e. Orientation leader, Gryphon, Student Senate, GEM, Greek Allies, Peer Health Advisors, BTS, EcoReps, etc.)	Less than 25% of chapter members are involved in other campus organizations and/or leadership roles (i.e. Orientation Leader, Gryphon, Student Senate, GEM, Greek Allies, Peer Health Advisors, BTS, EcoReps, etc.)	Chapter members are not involved in other campus organizations and/or leadership roles
Chapter members participate in additional leadership development opportunities (i.e. Leadershape, Posse, GPE, IMPACT, AFLV, LAUNCH, Recruitment & New Member Education Institute, Summit on Greek Excellence and Innovation)	Chapter members participate in additional leadership development opportunities (i.e. Leadershape, NGLA)	Chapter members do not participate in additional leadership development opportunities (i.e. Leadershape, NGLA)	There are no continuing member education programs/plans
Chapter members are able to reflect and connect leadership experiences to their membership
Chapter conducts a timely, comprehensive, and on-going structured officer transition process with support from advisors and outgoing officers	Chapter has officer transition and training procedures that are unstructured	Chapter transitions resources to new officers, but does not include structured support on procedures or practices	Officer transitions/training is non-existent and happen sporadically without support from outgoing officers or advisors
Chapter has a created DEI position within the organization with responsibilities adhering to the overall development and training of its members around the aspects of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, including an expectation that the officer receives appropriate training inter/national headquarters or university offices and can demonstrate member learning as a result of these trainings	Chapter has a representative/liaison to maintain and establish opportunities for the chapter or the main contact to organizations developed out of the DEI principles	Chapter has created the framework for establishing a position for DEI chair/representative around the principles of inclusion	Chapter has no position/representative for DEI and has created no framework for the creation of a future DEI position within the chapter/organization
Chapter includes DEI with their new member education module via national offices/outside/University offices (offices include: Center for Gender Equity, the Chaplain's Office, the Office of Multicultural Affairs, the Pride Center, and the Office of Student Access and Success)	Chapter includes DEI modules outside of the new member education process with assistance from national offices/outside/University offices such (offices include: Center for Gender Equity, the Chaplain's Office, the Office of Multicultural Affairs, the Pride Center, and the Office of Student Access and Success)	Chapter has a framework of DEI modules to educate their new members with assistance from national offices/outside/University offices such (offices include: Center for Gender Equity, the Chaplain's Office, the Office of Multicultural Affairs, the Pride Center, and the Office of Student Access and Success)	Chapter does not train their new members in DEI at any point in their new member education
Chapter demonstrates meaningful effort toward increasing membership to be more inclusive/reflect more closely to the student deomographics of the Lehigh student body	Chapter demonstrates effort toward increasing membership to be more inclusive/reflect more closely to the student deomographics of the Lehigh student body	Chapter does not demonstrate effort toward increasing membership to be more inclusive/reflect more closely to the student deomographics of the Lehigh student body	Chapter avoids effort toward increasing membership to be more inclusive/reflect more closely to the student deomographics of the Lehigh student body
75% or more of the chapter's membership has completed a minimum of two trainings/workshops/series specifically covering DEI topics in addition to the FSL requirements	50%-74% of the chapter's membership has completed a minimum of two trainings/workshops/series specifically covering DEI topics in addition to the FSL requirements	25%-49% of the chapter's membership has completed a minimum of two trainings/workshops/series specifically covering DEI topics in addition to the FSL requirements	Less than 25% of the chapter's membership has completed a minimum of two trainings/workshops/series specifically covering DEI topics
Organizational Operations
Accredited with Excellence Chapter governing documents are reviewed on an annual basis and revised as needed to reflect current chapter operations	Accredited Chapter has existing governing documents	Unaccredited Chapter has limited governing documents that are not reviewed annually	Unacceptable Chapter governing documents do not exist or are not utilized in the management of the chapter
Chapter is financially responsible and fiscally transparent	Chapter is financially stable	Chapter struggles with financial stability	Chapter is not financially stable
Chapter consistently educates chapter members on the Lehigh University Code of Conduct, Lehigh policies and FSL expectations and ensures that responsibility is shared across the entire membership	Chapter educates chapter members on policies and expectations, chapter members generally understand	Chapter does not educate chapter members on policies and expectations	Chapter does not communicate expectations to members

Chapter has a fully functioning standards/judicial/accountability process and consistently holds individual members accountable for poor behavior or conduct violations	Chapter has a standards/judicial/accountability process and inconsistently holds members individually accountable for poor behavior or conduct violations	Chapter has a standards/judicial/accountability process in name only and does not hold members individually accountable for poor behavior or conduct violations	Chapter does not have a standards/judicial/accountability process
Chapter operations are structured and organized, consisting of regular chapter meetings, executive council meetings, chapter calendar, committees, chapter retreats and chapter workshops	Chapter operations consist of chapter meetings and workshops	Chapter has a small group of members who keep the chapter operating, responsibility is not shared across the entire membership	Chapter struggles to elect officers willing to govern the chapter, chapter is hardly operational due to lack of buy-in from chapter members
Chapter regularly attends and engages in meetings with their governing council, FSL, and/or advisors	Chapter attends meetings with their governing council, FSL, and/or advisors	Chapter inconsistently attends meetings with their governing council, FSL, and/or advisors	Chapter does not attend meetings with their governing council, FSL, and/or advisors
Chapter ensures recruitment/intake practices are values-based and offers a welcoming, equitable and inclusive opportunity for all prospective members and members	Chapter recruitment/intake practices are values-based	Chapter struggles with practicing values- based recruitment/intake	Chapter does not practice values-based recruitment and/or violates governing council recruitment policies
Chapter consistently, professionally and appropriately manages all communication efforts (i.e. social media, newsletters)	Chapter manages communication efforts (i.e. social media, newsletters)	Chapter does not manage communication efforts (i.e. social media, newsletters)	Chapter does not communicate with FSL and HQ
Chapter consistently follows IHQ policies and procedures in regards to organizational governance	Chapter usually follows of IHQ policies and procedures in regards to organizational governance	Chapter does not follow IHQ policies and procedures in regards to organizational governance	Chapter is held responsible for not following IHQ policies and procedures in regards to organizational governance
Chapter develops, implements, and assesses goals in partnership with FSL, HQ and advisors	Chapter sets goals and makes progress towards goals	Chapter may set goals, but fails to execute action towards goals regularly	Chapter does not set goals
Chapter educates members about resources aimed to support individual members through payment plans/Alumni/national sponsors, University funds, chapter-funded scholarships, etc.	The chapter does not educate members about financial resources but has a way to support members who are having financial difficulty	The chapter does not provide any education or assistance to members who are in need of financial assistance	The chapter does not create opportunities or allow for flexibility for members who may be in need of financial assistance
Chapter has partnered with campus resources, nationals, and/or other external partners to create and implement a completed DEI plan, including opportunities for members and stakeholdres to provide feedback on the chapter's progress	Chapter has partnered with campus resources, nationals, and/or other external partners to create a completed DEI plan with actionable steps ready to be implemented	Chapter has partnered with campus resources, nationals, and/or other external partners to create a completed DEI plan, but has not begun the implementation of the plan yet	The chapter has no DEI plan and has no plans of partnering with campus resources, nationals, and/or external partners to produce a completed DEI plan
Chapter has a membership recruitment plan that prioritizes long-term sucess at Lehigh and considers adherence to Lehigh policies, including the Occupancy Policy, when applicable. Chapter utilizes resources from Lehigh and their inter/national recruitment to meet recruitment goals.	Chapter has a membership recruitment plan that prioritizes maintaining a healthy chapter size	Chapter does not have a membership recruitment plan, but maintains a healthy chapter size	Chapter does not have a membership and does not maintain a healthy chapter size
Community Service & Engagement
Accredited with Excellence	Accredited	Unaccredited	Unacceptable
Chapter sets a meaningful standard for chapter member participation in community service and holds members accountable to meet those expectations	Chapter sets a standard for chapter member participation in community service	Chapter does not set expectations for member participation in community service	Chapter does not set expectations for member participation in community service and chapter members do not participate in community service
Chapter develops and executes meaningful plans and continually partners with community organization(s), regularly contributing towards the needs of the community particularly local minority-owned businesses/community centers	Chapter has a community service plan and has laid the groundwork for partnering/supporting/donating/collaborating with local minority-owned businesses/community centers etc.	Chapter does not have a community service plan	Chapter schedules service opportunities and fails to follow through
Chapter members engage and reflect critically about service experiences	Chapter members have some understanding and reflection around service	Chapter members do not view service as a valuable aspect of membership	Chapter is unaware/uninformed about service opportunities
Chapter members engage and reflect critically about national and local philanthropic efforts	Chapter members have some understanding and reflection around national and local philanthropic efforts	Chapter members do not view philanthropic efforts as a valuable aspect of membership	Chapter is unaware/uninformed about national and local philanthropic efforts
Chapter uses their platform and and offers opportunities for their members to participate in advocacy opportunities within the Lehigh and Bethlehem communities
Chapter has not been found responsible for violations of Code of Conduct or Federal/State Law	Chapter has not been found responsible for violations of Code of Conduct or Federal/State Law	Chapter has been found responsible for a Code of Conduct violation and/or Federal/State Law	Chapter has been found responsible for serious Code of Conduct violation(s), Federal/State Law(s) and/or multiple conduct violation(s) over the course of one academic year
Chapter regularly collaborates with campus departments and student organizations outside of the fraternity and sorority community	Chapter collaborates with student organization outside of the fraternity and sorority community	Chapter does not collaborate with campus departments or student organizations outside of the fraternity and sorority community	Chapter has no presence in the campus community
Chapter hosts alumni engagement activities/initiatives and communicates annually with alumni (i.e. newsletter, Facebook group)	Chapter has an alumni advisory board and communicates with advisor/board	Chapter does not communicate with alumni beyond alumni advisors	Chapter does not have an alumni advisor and/or does not regularly communicate with advisor
Chapter explores relevant issues facing both the Lehigh and Greek community and develops efforts to address them as an organization	Chapter discusses relevant issues facing both the Lehigh and Greek community	Chapter does not identify issues beyond their chapter and does not contribute to change within the community	Chapter does not identify issues facing their chapter and does nothing to address change within the community

Chapter actively engages in community cultural change and advocacy on relevant issues, including issues of marginalization, equity, access, and sustainability
The chapter has conducted programming with at least three non-Greek affiliated or culturally based organizations and can	The chapter has conducted programming with at least two non-Greek affiliated or	The chapter has conducted programming with at least one non-Greek affiliated or	The chapter has no planned future programming with at least one non-Greek
demonstrate learning from those programs Chapter directly address inappropriate and harmful behavior surrounding Diversity,	culturally-based organizations Chapter has practices in place to directly address inappropriate and harmful behavior	culturally-based organization Chapter does not have practices in place to directly address inappropriate and harmful behavior surrounding Diversity, Equity and	affiliated or culturally-based organization Chapter avoids or does not address inappropriate and harmful behavior
Equity and Inclusion	surrounding Diversity, Equity and Inclusion	Inclusion	surrounding Diversity, Equity and Inclusion
Academic & Intellectual Advancement
Accredited with Excellence	Accredited	Unaccredited	Unacceptable
Chapter and New Member GPAs are significantly above the all-greek, all-fraternity/sorority average	Chapter and New Member GPAs are at or around the all-greek, all-fraternity/sorority average	Chapter and New Member GPAs are below the all-greek, all-fraternity/sorority average	Chapter and New Member GPAs are consistently and significantly below the all-greek, all-fraternity/sorority average
Chapter has more than 50% of membership on Dean's List in most recent Spring and/or Fall terms	Chapter has more than 25% of membership on Dean's List in most recent Spring and/or Fall terms
Chapter has a robust scholarship plan that utilizes campus resources and supports members who self-identify as in-need of additional accomodations	Chapter has a formal scholarship plan that utilizes campus resources	Chapter has a scholarship plan in name only but does not use it consistently to hold their members to a high academic standard	Chapter does not have a scholarship plan or academic incentives/recognition
Chapter uses academic incentives/recognition to promote individual member academic achievement	Chapter recognizes individual members' academic achievement	Chapter does not use academic incentives and has limited recognition for academic achievement	Chapter does not use academic incentives or recognition for academic achievement
Chapter promotes intellectual development beyond classroom learning via career planning and networking opportunities	Chapter promotes intellectual development beyond classroom learning	Chapter does not engage in intellectual development activities	Chapter does not promote intellectual development beyond classroom learning
Chapter has a Faculty and Staff advisor and regularly engages and communicates with both (i.e. invitation to programs, partnering on workshops, assistance with scholarship plan, invitation to meals)	Chapter has a Faculty and Staff advisor	Chapter does not have a Faculty or Staff advisor and/or does not regularly communicate with advisor	Chapter does not have a Faculty and Staff advisor
Chapter promotes professional exploration in partnership with the Center for Career & Professional Development (i.e. resume workshops, mock interviews, career exploration)	Chapter promotes professional exploration	Chapter promotes limited professional opportunities	Chapter does not promote professional exploration
Chapter meaningfully creates connections	Chapter acknowledges and/or develops	Chapter does not identify connections	Chapter does not identify connections between classroom learning and membership	connections between classroom learning and membership	between classroom learning and membership	between classroom learning and membership
Chapter provides opportunities for all members to participate in education around inclusive pracitices in the professional settings
Facilities Management (if applicable)
Accredited with Excellence	Accredited	Unaccredited	Unacceptable
Chapter consistently excels with openings/closings	Chapter is successful with openings/closings		Chapter consistently does not meet requirements for openings/closings
Chapter consistently attends Housing Services meetings	Chapter often attends Housing Services meetings	Chapter infrequently attends Housing Services meetings	Chapter never attends Housing Services meetings
Chapter regularly communicates (proactively) with necessary constituents	Chapter communicates with necessary constituents	Chapter does not communicate proactively and inconsistently communicates reactively with necessary constituents	Chapter does not communicate with necessary constituents
Chapter holds individuals accountable for facility-related issues (i.e. damages and violations)	Chapter holds individuals accountable for facility-related issues (i.e. damages and violations)	Chapter does not hold individuals accountable for facility-related issues (i.e. damages and violations)	Chapter does not hold individuals accountable for facility-related issues (i.e. damages and violations)
Chapter has zero life safety violations and/or common damages	Chapter has minimal life safety violations and/or common damages	Chapter has several life safety violations and/or common damages	Chapter has numerous life safety violations and/or common damages
Chapter meets/exceeds occupancy	Chapter meets/exceeds occupancy	Chapter faces occupancy issues	Chapter faces occupancy issues regularly
Chapter uses known best practices in house management and operations and demonstrates respect and appreciation for the facility	Chapter uses best practices in house management and operations and demonstrates respect and appreciation for the facility	Chapter struggles with house management and operations and demonstrates a lack of respect for the facility	Chapter is ineffective in house management and operations and demonstrates a lack of respect for the facility
Chapter has created sustainability goals, implemented initiatives, and assessed/reported impact of measures in Facilities Management	Chapter has created sustainability goals and implemented initiatives in Facilities Management	Chapter has created and integrated sustainability goals into Facilites Management	Chapter does not have sustainability goals or measures integrated into Facilities Management
Chapter implements unique and innovative initiatives to ensure that the facility supports members in their academic, involvement, wellness, and career goals.			