Who's Who on our Pastoral Care Team:

The Rev. Brooks Cato spent many years at Camp Mitchell in the Diocese of Arkansas as a camper, staff member, and board member. He served as the ECCC Annual Meeting chaplain for three years and was delighted to spend time and build relationships with so many amazing camp people from all over the church. These days, he is the Rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church in Hamilton, New York and spends most of his free time stacking rocks and chasing whistle pigs. The Rev. Mark Delcuze has been associated with Episcopal Camps since the summers of 1981 & 82 when he first served as Head Counselor for Peterkin(WV) . He has also led a variety of Camps and Retreats at Shrinemont (VA), Camp Chanco (S.VA), Camp Washington (CT) & Camp B.C. Harris (MA). Currently he works closely with Camp Wright (Easton) supporting counselor orientation and as Chaplain to Senior High Camp. Click Here to Meet with Mark Delcuze on Zoom

The Rev. Dr. Jess Elfring-Roberts is a native of the Chicago area. Jess's love for camp began in the summer of 2004, when she was hired as the music director for Camp Chicago. Her life has never been the same. Camp has taught Jess more about faith and spirituality than any other place in her life. Jess was ordained a vocational deacon in January of 2013. Her ministry focus is youth and family ministry. In 2015, Jess founded Improv for Change, a company focused on using improvisation techniques to elicit change in work, life, and community. Currently, Jess teaches high school theatre and coaches rugby in Chicago, IL. She is married to her summer camp sweetheart, Rebecca, and they have 2 daughters. #campfriendsarethebestfriends Click Here to meet with Jess Elfring-Roberts Passcode: 302432

The Rev. Maggie Foote grew up attending Procter Summer Camp in the Diocese of Southern Ohio, and worked there for several summers as a young adult. Since then she has served as a camp chaplain, and attended many ECCC conferences and gotten to know various centers around the country. She currently serves as Associate Rector at All Souls Episcopal Parish in Berkeley, CA and lives in the Bay Area with her wife, Andrea, who she met at the ECCC conference in 2013. "I have been formed in my faith in many ways, but none has been more impactful than summer camp ministry. I am grateful to ECCC for supporting directors and staff who continue to work to provide this ministry to our church's young people in an ever changing and challenging world." Graham McKim grew up in the Episcopal Church and at Episcopal summer camps. Since he was six he never missed a summer at the camp he grew up at, Cliff Springs. As soon as he was old enough to become a counselor at 14 he jumped at the opportunity so that he could spend as many weeks as possible at his summer home. You have likely heard at least 1 of Graham's "One time at Cliff Springs" stories. When the Diocese of West Missouri closed Cliff Springs, he heard of this camp in Chicago, called Camp Chicago that still needed staff. While he knew that it would never be as good as Cliff Springs, he thought he would give it a shot, and spent the next 12 summers there...turns out it was just as good. When the opportunity for a Food Service Director at Camp Capers opened up, he thought it would be a good idea to marry his two passions of Good cooking, and Episcopal Camps. He was there from 2015 through 2019. He has been to many ECCC conferences, and was on the Logistics teams for 2020 conference. Graham is currently not officially affiliated with any camp, but his love of the ECCC world and the formation of children (and adults) through camping ministries is still very dear to his heart. He started a business making soap in January of 2020, which as it turns out was an excellent time to start a business (not). Graham is not a Reverend, and is often not even reverent, but would still love to spend some time listening to you and how your whirlwind of a year has been. The Rev. Dr. Ben Nelson grew up with Episcopal Camps as a P.K. and attended both Camp McDowell, and Camp Bratton-Green. As a younger person, he got connected with Camp Capers and Mustang Island, and he's been a camp kid for life ever since. He currently resides in San Marcos, Texas (home of Texas State University). He is the rector of St. Mark's Church and actively (with hope and joy!) trying to figure out the strange world of internet church. He served as a chaplain at our ECCC AC at Capers, and adores the work of Camp & Conference Center people everywhere. He is firmly in the "camp" of people who believe that Camp and Conference work is the "hospitality laboratory" for the church, and that ECCC's work will always bolster, support, and strengthen the life of all our ministry settings. He hopes to encourage, inspire, and share gratitude for ECCC, especially in these "unusual" times. Click Here to Meet with Ben Nelson on Google Meet
