

| Program Name | Nation | Program Description | Full Report Link |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Coast Salish Gathering | Sewemish Indian Tribal Community | Native nations throughout the US face environmental problems that span multiple jurisdictions, and sometimes cross international borders. The Coast Salish Community enables the region's tribes and First Nations to share concerns and develop initiatives to convene and meet the highly Salish Sea ecosystem together. While much work remains to be done, the Coast Salish people are confident that their traditions will guide them. | View Report Download Report |
| Saginaw Chippewa Tribal Land Title & Records Office | Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan | Representatives on the title through the Tribal Land Title and Records Office. It provides advice and technical assistance to create clear title quality, increasing housing options and lease opportunities for citizens. Housing issues and the economic development options have emerged. Most importantly, citizens are moving back home. | View Report Download Report |
| Saginaw Chippewa Elders Center | Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe of Michigan | The Rising Center of Anishinabe Culture & Legacy is the caretaker of culture for the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe. The Center educates the Tribe's young people, research, oral tradition, stories, music, workshops, and language programs. By sharing its story in many ways, the Tribe is helping to keep the culture alive and present as an Anishinabe people. | View Report Download Report |
| Salish and Kootenai Trust Resource Management | Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes | Salish and Kootenai Trust Trust Resource Management process enables the Tribes to develop the land and policies necessary to meet the needs of the future. | View Report Download Report |
| San Carlos Apache Elders Cultural Advisory Council | San Carlos Apache Tribe | The Elders Cultural Advisory Council advises the San Carlos Tribal Council on matters of culture, conducting consultations with off-reservation entities and administering cultural preservation activities. It oversees how elders are seen as a fourth branch of government for the tribal, economic, political, and cultural issues to address. | View Report Download Report |
| Santa Ynez Band of Chumash Indians Academic Readiness Effort | Santa Ynez Band of Chumash Indians | Grounded in the concept of "Amigash," or generally, the Santa Ynez Academic Readiness effort includes the band's educational investment plan. From one-on-one tutoring to cultural programs, the Santa Ynez Band is committed to academic readiness and academic success. Students and staff are working to meet the needs of the future and are working to meet the needs of all citizens in their region. | View Report Download Report |
| Scott County Association for Leadership and Efficiency | Tribal and Local Consortium: Shoshone-Bannock Indian Community | The Shoshone-Bannock Tribal Community and Scott County agencies work together. The Scott County Association for Leadership & Efficiency (SCALE) fosters interorganizational cooperation, shared communication, and the sharing of resources to help meet the needs of all citizens in their region. | View Report Download Report |
| Sisseton Wahpeton Professional Empowerment Program | Sisseton Wahpeton Oyate | The Sisseton Wahpeton Oyate Professional Empowerment Program intends to culturally relevant workforce development through training and service delivery to address the well-being of the whole person. Citizens are working to meet the needs of the future and are working to meet the needs of all citizens in their region. | View Report Download Report |
| Sitka CWMA Partnership | Sitka Tribe of Alaska | The Indian Child Welfare Act is intended to protect and promote the best interests of the child. Through direct communication, joint case management, and cooperative child support, the Sitka CWMA Partnership aims to meet the needs of the future and are working to meet the needs of all citizens in their region. | View Report Download Report |
| Southwest Oregon Research Project | Cowille Indian Tribe | Cowille Indian Tribe's Southwest Oregon Research Project is a historic, high-impact, and wide-reaching endeavor that advances tribal self-determination. It focuses on the cultural values of cooperation and community. The project aims to meet the needs of the future and are working to meet the needs of all citizens in their region. | View Report Download Report |
| Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Mentors Program | Standing Rock Sioux Tribe | The Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Mentors Program addresses the cultural values of cooperation and community. The project aims to meet the needs of the future and are working to meet the needs of all citizens in their region. | View Report Download Report |
| Sunamish Climate Change Initiative | Sunamish Indian Tribal Community | After experiencing numerous extreme weather events, the Sunamish Indian Tribal Community decided to prepare for future climate change. The Sunamish Climate Change Initiative develops the local capacity and uses community resources to protect the assets and preserve traditional practices. Working with the state and other governments, the tribe has found a solution way to prepare for the dramatic effects of climate change. | View Report Download Report |
| Sunamish Cooperative Land Use | Sunamish Indian Tribal Community | The Cooperative Land Use Program, which is based on an MOU between the Sunamish Indian Tribal Community and Skagit County, provides a framework for conducting presiding activities within the boundaries of the "shared-use" reservation and establishes a basis for resolving any conflicts that might arise. The Program serves as a model for other tribes in how to both communicate and coordinate land use and enhances a program that fosters "win-win" solutions rather than litigation. | View Report Download Report |

