Tim Hein wanted the season to continue on	temporarily ban due to COVID Possibly due to his lucrative commentating contract + his well publicized financial situation
Tim Hein didn't see why commentating couldn't go ahead without the game	People go to the game for the commentating (allegedly)
Tim thought the players were "too soft", and so play during COVID was going to be too dangerous
Tim was willing to commentate solo with no game Tommyball players stay in condition via KFC drive-thru	Tim probably could do self-interviews

Tim is described as the "most humble man to ever play Tommyball"	Tim agrees. Also brilliant, creative genius. Humility is what he's most proud of. Hard to be humble as an all-time player.
His humility comes from his roots. Tim Hein was born on July 20, 1969 in Traralgon	Tim was the 3rd child from his mother. Tim's dad was at the paper mill and
 Tim was slightly overweight as a baby.	didn't record anything about Tim and his mom in his diary.
Tim has had a "highly active and catastrophic bowel disorder" since he was a baby.	Tim remains a fast digester to this day, helps as an athlete.
 Chapter 2: The Next Chapter Tim's teachers noticed his struggles with reading.	Tim still struggles to finish sentences.
Tim went to Kosciuszko Primary School.	Tim saw bigger kids being stretchered "off the rhombus" (Junior Tommyball is played on a parallelogram, and Tommyball at this point was on an octogon),
 Tim had an "aggressive, yet creative streak" according to police	and wanted to be like them. Tim was stretchered off that afternoon. "Criminal intent" = "knockabout charm"
when Tim was a kid A court order had Tim take psychological assessments.	Aggressive, Narcissistic, Delusional, and Severely Deprived of Love came up a bunch in those assessments. Added up to Tommyball.
Tim's career was nearly cut short by an injury.	banch in those assessments, Abbed up to thiningbait. Details of that injury only available in a private paywalled blog. Hint that 'some of the stunts in BMX Bandits are not possible for someone with Tim's hand-eye coordination. Made him stay in hospital for 16 weeks, and forced extensive reconstructive surgery that doctors described as "very personal".
"My Lives" only costs $25.99 Tim still feels a slight tingling and intense stabbing pains along his right arm when he's awake Chapter 3: Passion
Tim has a reputation with being popular with the ladies. Tim has a passion for animals, but not all of them.	Love life stuff are in chapters 43 to 58 Cats, dogs, pandas a little distasteful.
Most beautiful and graceful of creatures is earthworms to Tim. Tim's love for worms is well documented.	Tim had an exclusive home worm farm collection, a fixture in many pet stores for many years until controversially being removed for alleged breaches of manufacturing labour laws. Written about, massive fines paid.
Tim's love of worms originated in the foot hills in the Strzelecki Ranges of Gippsland, where his parents would take him on weekends while they went shopping in Melbourne.	Tim was dropped off at the side of the road with a spade and a bucket. Dug for worms.
Tim sometimes took worms on his long walk home.	One worm in particular was good ol' Bob, as long as his arm with a charm and charisma that Tim had.
Bob survived the long walk home, and Tim kept him under his bed for days. Smuggled dirt for Bob to eat, and soil.	Bob didn't live for long in Tim's house. Tim still thinks of Bob to this day as the best friend he ever had.
Bob, and worms in general can teach a bunch about Tommyball.	Patient, thoughtful, incredibly flexible (too flexible). Worms are also capable of incredible feats of courage. Remain generous and good-humoured. The
 Tim has a bunch of earth worms tattooed on his left arm, including	ultimate Tommyball animal
Tommyball players wear sleeveless onesies in the winter months	Sight of worms on his arm would strike fear in opponent's hearts "on the rhombus" (continuity error, Tommyball was on an Octogon until 2017, except in Junior Tommyball, which uses parallelogram)
If "My Lives" wasn't dedicated to Tim Hein, Tim would dedicated "My Lives" to Bob	Next autobiography will be dedicated to Bob
Tim got emotional reading about Bob. Tim recorded the audiobook at Loy Yang open cut mines	Tim took maybe a month to record the audiobook (not long)
Tim had Farm's Union Iced Coffees during the recording
