

QUIZ³

PACK TEMPLATE

Don't edit this master file!
Also, don't request edit access of this master file!

If you wish to write a pack for the game listed above, then you should make a copy of this pack template file. To do this, follow the steps to the side:

General Notes:

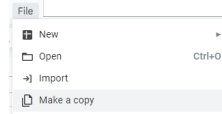

None.

Last Updated: 24th September 2023

If you are working in Google Sheets (the preferred option):

1. Go to File Make a copy.
2. Rename the new file to something sensible.
3. Change the folder to copy into to one that you have write access to.
4. Start writing your pack.
5. When it comes to sharing your pack, go to the Question Submission Form and when selecting a file, you should be able to select your file from your Google Drive directly.

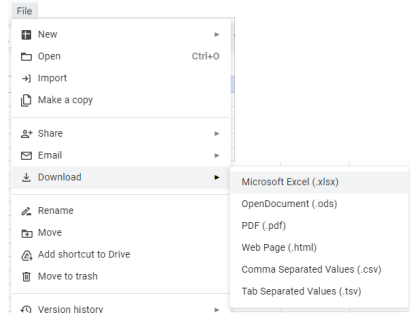

Note: The file shared to the proofers will be a copy of the sheet and not the sheet itself.

If you are working in Excel or other offline spreadsheet software:

1. Go to File Download Microsoft Excel (.xlsx). (or Open Document (.ods) if using LibreCalc or other open-source software)
2. Rename the downloaded file to something sensible.
3. Start writing your pack.
4. When it comes to sharing your pack, go to the Question Submission Form and when selecting a file, you should be able to select your file from your local machine to share.

Note: The file shared to the proofers will be a copy of the sheet and not the sheet itself.

Quiz³ Questions

Write a total of 12 short clues, and with each clue, an answer of exactly 6 letters in length.
The clues do not have to completely pin the answer. You can be broad if you wish (e.g. "Capital City").
Include references if there are pertinent sources required to prove the answer is true.
